

License Policy

Definitions

Organization - the Organization which makes (portions of) the Solution available to Licensee (e.g. because the Licensee works at the Organization which bought the license from (a Partner of) Licensor.

License Agreement - this agreement between Licensee and Licensor.

Licensor - the private limited company or a to this company affiliated venture that makes use of present conditions.

Licensee - the natural person who installs the Solution and uses the Solution.

Solution - software made available by the Organization to the Licensee, not being Third Party Software.

Third Party Software - software of third-party suppliers which during the Solution installation is installed by Licensee, which software is necessary for using the Software.

License

Licensee shall be granted the right to use the Solution, however this right is non-exclusive, not transmissible and immediately revocable by Licensor. Furthermore, this right is granted for 1 (one) the private limited company, the Licensee. This with regard to the further conditions and restrictions as set out in this License Agreement.

Licensee may only use the Solution for the purpose for which it has been made available by the Organization to the Licensee. A possible revocation of the right falling under this article, may go along with the Licensor offer of a new License Agreement. In case of non-acceptance, the rights will expire.

Reverse engineering, copying and modifying

Licensee shall not decompile the Solution, duplicate the code and/or translate it or otherwise submit it to reverse engineering. Including, yet not exclusively, getting around (technical) protection. Licensee shall not make the Solution public and copy and/or otherwise duplicate or modify it.

Licensee may not make (or let make) any adjustments in the Solution, including, yet not exclusively: removing and/or modifying attentive names indicating intellectual ownership rights, the confidential nature of the Solution and/or any other reference to Licensor.

Intellectual property rights

Licensee shall not make the Solution available to third parties.

Licensee shall not transfer nor emit the Solution or any data medium on which it resides, nor shall it transfer or emit the right to use the Solution, to any third party or grant (restricted) rights on it (sublicense).

Effect, duration and termination

The License Agreement becomes effective on the day that it is been accepted by the installing the Solution.

This License Agreement ends when the overall license agreement on the Solution between Organization and Licensor ends.

Licensor has the right to terminate the License Agreement with immediate effect, if the Licensee breaches one or more of its obligations outlined in this License Agreement.

In the event of such an early termination, Licensee shall not be entitled to a refund of any fees or a payment of damages, it shall not affect its right to claim damages because of breaches.

In all cases of termination of the License Agreement, Licensee returns all copies of the Solution and the in its possession as well as all of its duplications to the address of Licensor or Organization, within 1 (one) month after termination. Also, Solution shall directly be removed from all Licensee properties after termination of the License Agreement. Possible costs, which come along with the previous action shall be at the Licensee expense.

Warranties, liability and support

Solution is provided on an 'as is' basis. Although, the Solution is compounded with great care, Licensor cannot guarantee the Solution works flawless and/or is respectively without any omissions. Additionally, Licensor does not guarantee that the Solution is fit for purpose and/or use.

If Licensee is responsible for breaches in the compliance with its obligation(s) to the Licensor, Licensee shall be liable for compensation of damages suffered, or to be suffered by the Licensor.

Liability of Licensor for any form of damage is entirely excluded.

Licensor shall absolutely not conduct any support to the Licensee, except as part of active annual license support plan, delivery of changes to Latvian legislation at no additional cost (except deployment in customer environment – application at additional implementation costs on Time & Material base). It is the Licensee's responsibility to notify the Licensor of any necessary legislative changes (implementation works in Licensee application additionally) - the Licensor does not responsible to keep up with current Latvian legislation. For regular support the Licensee must contact the Organization.

Licensee accepts absolutely no liability for possible Third-Party Software, which is installed by Licensee that is necessary for using the Software.

Privacy

Licensor processes (personal) data of Licensee on behalf of the Organization, which uses these data for logging and security purposes. Licensee hereby states to have taken knowledge of this and grants Licensor the right to process these data for the purpose as described as above.

Other stipulations

This License Agreement shall be interpreted and construed according to, and governed by, Latvia Law. Disputes or controversy arising out of, or relating to this License Agreement shall be brought before the district court where the Licensor is established.

Unless differently provided, certain obligations, which because of their nature are intended to last after termination of the License Agreement, remain to be effective after its termination. The termination of the License Agreement explicitly does not dismiss Licensee of the provisions concerning liability, intellectual property, governing rights and forum choice.

With regard to Third Party Software the supplier (license) conditions of their software applies.